and in places to criticize what he argues is a coherent and original apologetic strategy setting out the basic philosophical and theological presuppositions of pascal s project the present volume draws the distinction between convictions attained by reason and those inspired by god given faith it also presents pascal s view of the contradictions within human nature between the wretchedness our inability to live the life of reason to attain secure and durable happiness and the greatness the power of thought manifested in the very awareness of our wretchedness his mind body dualism and his mechanistic conception of non human animals are discussed pascal invokes the biblical story of the fall and the doctrine of original sin as the only credible explanation of these contradictions his analysis of human occupations as powered by the twin desire to escape from painful thoughts and to gratify one s vanity is subjected to critical examination as is his conception of the self and self love pascal argues that just as christianity propounds the only explanation for the human condition so it offers the only kind of happiness that would satisfy our deepest longings he thus reasons that we have an interest in investigating its truth claims as rooted in the bible and in history the closing chapters of this book discuss pascal s view of christian morality and the famous wager argument for opting in favour of christian belief

at the beginning of this volume erasmus leaves louvain to live in basel weary from the many controversies reflected in the letters of the previous volumes he is also anxious to see the annotations to his third edition of the new testament through johann froben s press above all he fears that pressure from the imperial court in the netherlands will force him to take a public stand against luther erasmus completes a large number of works in the span of this volume including the paraphrases on matthew and john two new expanded editions of the colloquies an edition of de conscribendis epistolis two apoloiae against his spanish detractors and editions of arnobius junior and hilary of poitiers but the predominant theme of the volume remains the sorry business of luther the harder erasmus persists in trying to adhere to a reasonable course between catholic and reforming zealots the more he finds himself a heretic to both sides his catholic critics appear the more dangerous among them are the papal nuncio girolamo aleandro who is bent on discrediting him at both the imperial and papal courts as a supporter of luther the spaniard diego López zúñiga who compiles a catalogue of blasphemies and impieties of erasmus of rotterdam and the carmelite nicholaas baechem who denounces erasmus both in public sermons and at private drinking parties erasmus refusal to counsel severity against the lutherans is motivated chiefly by concern for peace and the common good of christendom and not by any tender regard for luther and the other reformers still many of the letters in this volume testify to his growing aversion to the reformers and we see him moving perceptibly in the direction of his eventual public breach with them a special feature of this

this volume covers a number of significant events and issues in erasmus life and in the history of his times he travels on horseback from louvain to basel to assist his publisher and friend johann froben during the crucial phases in the production of his revised new testament the edition that he feels will be his lasting contribution to the scholarly foundations of the christian faith once it is in the hands of the public he feels he will be able to face the approach of old age more calmly on the return journey to louvain he falls gravely ill from what is diagnosed as bubonic plague but recovers in a month and convalesces in the home of another publisher friend dirk martens international politics continue to capture his attention requests for funds in support of a papal crusade against the turks arouse the flames of german national sentiment with the death of maximilian i friends of erasmus such as richard pace ulrich von hutten and guillaume budé are involved in diplomatic negotiations concerning the imperial succession when prince ferdinand arrives from spain and requires a tutor the question of erasmus own return to active court duties is raised after the appearance of luther s ninety five theses on indulgences purgatory and papal authority the question arises among conservatives whether erasmus work too is a threat to the traditional ways of the church and society for the time being erasmus is prepared to commend luther and defend the latter s right to be critical of the church erasmus overriding conviction at this point is that he and luther are both part of the great intellectual and spiritual renewal that is taking place in so many parts of europe as luther s appearance lends a new kind if spiritual and patriotic vigour to german humanism the cult of erasmus erasmus the fellow german becomes an integral part of that new enthusiasm with saxony and its elector frederick the wise at its center
